

Opportunity dances with those already on the dance floor

Pippa Roberts

Steven Fenech has been wheelchair dancing since 2002 and unfortunately not been able to compete at the level of which he is capable as he did not have a regular partner. Since June 2018 he has fortunately found a young dance partner who really wants to dance. Sarah Farrugia has been dancing ballet since she was 5 years old at the Pippa Gee Dance Studio but has never danced Latin American or Ballroom, but took on the challenge to learn in time to compete in the German Open Championships, in August 2018. Steve and Sarah were placed third and were complemented on their achievement after such a short time. Pippa Roberts, their coach commented that she had never had such a dedicated dancer and is really looking forward to the future of the couple. It is so nice to see Steve happy and enjoying his dancing again. They are now practicing for the Malta Open Dance Spectacular which is to be held on 24/25 November 2018 at the University Sports Hall, Msida. As 13 countries will be attending they are taking it very seriously.

Steve encourages anyone who is in a wheelchair, whatever their age, to try wheelchair dancing. "I never thought I would be able to dance yet here I am doing just that!" If anybody could help him by sponsoring, it would be very much appreciated by this fantastic couple. Malta is unfortunate in that every competition means the cost of air fares and hotels, something that other countries can often avoid.

Just remember, Steve says "ANYONE CAN DANCE"
